The Samaritan woman said to him, “...How can you ask me for a drink?”

Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:9-10 NIV

THE FIRE ALARM SYSTEM REPLACEMENT—We were blessed to find another company to bring our system back to working order at a much-reduced cost to the church. The accepted bid is for $7,500, which you will see reflected in the financial report. There are two ways to give: online through the account for this project on AdventistGiving, or locally using a Tithe Envelope (please write 'FIRE ALARM SYSTEM' on your envelope). Our Deacons are on Fire Watch while we are in the building until the new system is in place. Thank you, faithful givers!

OCTOGENARIAN PARTY!!—November 5 at 7 PM in the Fellowship Hall for anyone who is at least 80 years old. (If you are outside that range, but married to someone who's in, you're invited too!) Just bring a favorite desert to share, and a humorous anecdote about yourself you're sure no one else knows. This will be a fun evening you won't want to miss. Please contact Barb Karlow with any questions.
